Huddersfield 1946, two young people fall in love and marry when just 18. The war has ended and they buy an old bus and convert it into a caravan and travel south to commence life in an apple orchard. This is just the beginning of the unusual partnership of Reg and Dorothy Calvert as they travel through life together. Reg is a man of ideas and dreams and when he hears Bill Hayley's 'Rock Around The Clock' he decides to bring rock & roll to towns and cities across the country by forming new bands and provide entertainment for teenagers.
